A. T. Seashore föddes i Dayton, Iowa, 1871, arbetade på farm till 1889, under vintermånaderna besökande skola och även inhämtande undervisning av en syster, som var lärarinna. Han genomgick därefter en affärskurs vid Gustavus Adolphus College och förestod sedan i 2 års tid en järn- och maskinhandel jämte postkontor i en stad i Iowa. 1895 inträdde han åter vid det nämnda läroverket, blev student 1900, studerade i 2 år vid ett teologiskt seminarium i Philadelphia, samtidigt betjänande församlingar, ingick vid Augustana seminarium 1902 och prästvigdes 1903. Under de tre följande åren var han pastor i Swea, Iowa, varefter han kallades av Minnesotakonferensen att upptaga den kort förut påbörjade engelska verksamheten i Minneapolis. Under tiden var han även lärare vid Minnesota College och studerade emellanåt vid statsuniversitetet. 1915 utnämndes han till rektor vid Luther College.

Lutherans Mourn Death of Nebraska College President

Dr. A. T. Seashore, 63, president of Luther college, Wahoo, Neb., who died suddenly yesterday is well-known in Lutheran circles in the quad-cities.

His passing came as a shock to Dr. G. A. Brandelle, president of the Evangelical Lutheran Augustana synod, Dr. G. A. Andreen, president of Augustana college and seminary, and others, who were personally acquainted with him.

Dr. Seashore attended the annual pastors' retreat held at the Augustana seminary Feb. 5 and 6 and appeared in excellent health then. Luther college is operated by the Nebraska conference of the synod. He spent a year and a half in post graduate work at the University of Minnesota and at Augustana college. He then entered the Augustana seminary and received his bachelor of divinity degree in 1903, and was ordained at Paxton, Ill., June 14, 1903.

He was one of the founders of the Association of English Churches in the synod and served on the literature committee of the organization for three years.

In 1924, Augustana college and Gustavus Adolphus conferred the honorary title of doctor of divinity on Dr. Seashore for his outstanding work in education and theology.

Dr. G. A. Andreen, president of Augustana college, plans to attend the funeral Thursday afternoon at Wahoo.
