Våra släktingar från Målilla och Mörlunda som emigrerat

Två familjer, en från Emmenäs, Målilla och en från Borg, Mörlunda sammanflätades genom att två syskon i den ena familjen gifte sig med två syskon i den andra familjen.

Dessa två familjer fick 16 barn tillsammans varav nio barn utvandrade till Amerika under åren 1864-1875. Dessutom utvandrade ytterligare sex barnbarn under åren 1877-1889. Barnbarnen är kusiner med vår generations far/morföräldrar.

Familjerna är

- 1) Johan M. Sjöstrand/ Anna S. Danielsdotter i Emmenäs, Målilla
- 2) Sven P. Larsson/Stina G. Andersdotter i Borg, Mörlunda

Båda familjerna fick många barn och en konsekvens blev att det var svårt för barnen att försörja sig i Sverige. Det var oftast äldsta sonen som övertog gården medan övriga började arbeta som drängar eller pigor på andra gårdar.

Åren 1866-1868 är kända som de värsta missväxtåren i Sveriges historia vilket också påverkade motivationen för att utvandra. Hemresande svenskamerikaner berättade dessutom gärna om hur fantastiskt allt var i Amerika.

Min målsättning är att försöka få fram mer information om var dessa personer tog vägen och vad som hände med dem.

En översikt på vilka personer som emigrerat finns på min hemsida under Släktböcker, www.ingvarnore.se.

Förord till Carl G. Sjöstrand och Emelie C. Svensdotter

Nedanstående två familjer bands samman genom två äktenskap.

Carl Gustaf Sjöstrand med familj kom till Iowa 1869, förenade sig med vår församling, bosatte sig samma år på Sec. 11, Grant Township, Boone, verkade mycket godt inom församlingen, fick ofta leda gudstjänsterna, när pastorn var borta, var diakon hela tiden till dess han antog församlingsvården i Grant Center. Han nödgades slutligen afsäga sig arbetet i Grant Center, emedan krafterna försvagades och en obotlig sjukdom insmugit sig. Han och hans hustru bodde i Dayton de sista åren. Han dog i mars 1897 efter ett långvarigt lidande, som dock bars med tålamod. Man fick aldrig höra honom klaga. Hustrun bor i Madrid hos sin dotter och måg, Frank Anderson.

C.G Sjöstrand brev till pastor C.A. Hemborg

West Dayton den 23 oktober 1873.

Älskade broder i Christo Jesu.
Nåd och frid föröke sig!

Med lifliga känslor vid tanken på vår förra sammanvaro fattar jag pennan för att samtala med dig, dyre broder. Jag får omtala, att efter broder Hemborg lemnade oss har jag haft djup anklagelse i mitt inre för att vi kom så litet tillsammans.

Jag förstod efteråt, att jag förlorat mycket dermed. Det synes många gånger, som att de i jordiska bestyren ville taga öfverhanden, men lofvad vare den käre Guden, han sänder sin Ande till att bestraffa och tillrättavisa under pilgrimsfärden.

Jag förstår, att broder Hemborg har erhållit kallelse från oss och vår församlingen och nu är det min och alla vännernas bön och önskan, att broder Hemborg ville tänka på Josephs skada i Dayton, ty vi behöfva ej orda om behofvet att få oss en lärare, ty det är allt bekant.

Hvad vi häromkring nästan alla önska är, att broder Hemberg måtte antaga kallelsen. Jag kan väl förstå, att Hemberg kan hafva tankar både si och så, emedan röstningen ej utgjorde majoriteten för broder, men jag får upplysa, att stämman hölls så tidigt, att det var ej många som kände broder då, som de sedan fick göra. Så var förhållandet med mig, och andra bekänna detsamma.

Emellertid önska vi att snart få ett välkommet svar, nemligen att broder Hemborg snart kommer till oss och blir vår pastor, och som här ibland oss vil dela ut liffsens bröd. Här äro några fattiga och hungriga barn, fast mängden tyckes rika. Herren hjälpe oss, att vi må få se vår uselhet, med också få se se hvad vi äro i Honom, som köpt oss med sitt dyra blod.

Låt oss komma ihåg förbundet, som vi gjort med våra fäders Gud. Intet vidare för denna gång. Vi få väl brefvexla mera med hvarandra, om vi lefva.

Tecknat vänligen

C.G Sjöstrand.

MRS. SEASHORE CALLED HOME

Prof. Carl E. Seashore has returned home from a sad visit in Madrid and Dayton, Ia., joyless because of the last illness and death of his venerable mother, Mrs. Emily Seashore. He spent most of the past week at and near the home of sorrow.

Mrs. Seashore was 68 years of age, and had been a resident of Dayton and vicinity 40 years. She passed away Thursday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Anderson, of Madrid, and was laid to rest Saturday at Dayton, beside her husband, the late Carl Gustav Seashore.

Surviving are her sons, Prof. C. E. Seashore, Iowa City; Rev. Augustus Seashore, Swedeburg, Neb.; a foster son, Rev. Theodore Seashore, Avoca, Tex.; and a daughter, Mrs. Frank Anderson, of Madrid.

Mrs. Seashore, sr., was well-known in Iowa City, where her friends were many. She had passed the last four summers here, and was esteemed highly by all who knew her and had come in contact with her at the Seashore home and elsewhere. By these, she will be sincerely mourned.

På besök i sin fädernebygd, Dayton, Iowa, vistas nu professor C. E. Seashore, stadd på resa från Yale universitetet till statsuniversitetet i Iowa City, Iowa. Dr. Seashore är född af svenska föräldrar å en farm nära Dayton. Hans fader, mr Sjöstrand, afled för en kort tid sedan. Dr. Seashore har, säger en bytestidning, på ett erkännansvärdt sätt gjort en god början med att häfda svepskarnes renomme här i landet. Efter att i Gustavus Adolphus College hafva gjort förberedande studier, som sedan fortsattes i Yale College, New Haven, Conn., promoverades han för två år sedan till filosofie doktor samt utnämndes derefter till biträdande lärare i filosofi. Den filosofiska professorsstolen i Iowas universitet i Iowa City var för kort tid sedan ledig och söktes af många kvalificerade och framstående amerikaner samt af Dr. Seashore, hvilken också på grund af sin bemärkta kompetens blef antagen. Dr. Seashore har flera gånger hedrats med stipendium. Mycket mera kunde sägas om denne svensk-amerikanske filosof, i synnerhet med hänsyn till de många dragen af hans upphöjda karakter; men det sagda torde vara tillräckligt bevis att svenskarne här i lan-det hafva förmågor, värda att taga vara på och odla.

Three Generation Foursome In Seashore Family

Relaxing at the 19th hole at Finkbine field are three generations of the Seashore family, in a foursome that had just finished playing the first nine Tuesday morning. Dean Carl E. Seashore is standing with his son, Prof. Carl G. Seashore of State College, Pa. Seated are Miss Julianne Seashore, Prof. Seashore's daughter, and her fiance, Mr. Alan G. Hack, Jr., of Shamokin, Pa.

Prof. Seashore, Miss Seashore and Mr. Hack arrived Monday evening to visit Dean and Mrs. Seashore, 815 North Linn street, until today. They were en route home from the National Intercollegiate Championship golf tournament at Stanford university, Palo Alto, Calif., in which Mr. Hack competed as a member of the Pennsylvania State team, eastern intercollegiate champions.

Miss Seashore and Mr. Hack will be married July 24 in State College, Pa. Miss Seashore, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Seashore, attended Pennsylvania State college, where she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. Hack, son of Mrs. Alan G. Hack and the late Mr. Hack of Shamokin, was graduated this year from Pennsylvania State. He was affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Enjoyable Party At Seashore Home

Five cousins, staying at the home of Prof. and Mrs. C. E. Seashore, entertained at a delightful party, last evening, at the Seashore home. The hosts were Robert and Carl Seashore, Margaret Holmes, Lloyd Anderson, and Roberta Anderson.

The "Haleck Set Fire" orchestra furnished music for the dancing, which was enjoyed through the evening, and dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Prof. and Mrs. Seashore were the chaperons.

Mrs. Seashore to be Hostess

Mrs. Carl E. Seashore will entertain the members of the Woman's association of the Congregational church, at her home at 815 North Linn street, on Wednesday afternoon, March 21st, at 3 o'clock. The hostess will be assisted by Mrs. George M. Gailey, Mrs. A. W. Anderson, Mrs. E. W. Edwards, Mrs. William Maulsby, Mrs. Chester A. Phillips, and Mrs. G. T. W. Patrick. The program will include an Easter devotion exercise, presented by the woman's board, and musical numbers under the direction of Mrs. W. J. Weeber. The remainder of the afternoon will be devoted to business and an informal social time.

MRS. SEASHORE RESIGNS TODAY FAVORS HOWELL

Mrs. Roberta H. Seashore, candidate for membership on the board of education, named by the non-partisan committee has tendered her resignation, withdrawing in favor of Attorney Ralph P. Howell, who had held the post before and is now in the concluding days of his service, as to his first term of three years duration.

Mr. Howell had chivalrously withdrawn his name from the committee's consideration at the time the nomination was made, as there was a desire to place a woman on the ticket. On the other hand, Mrs. Seashore supposed that the school would not run, and therefore she accepted the honor.

She Endorses Judge Howell

Today, in an interview with a representative of the Press-Citizen, Mrs. Seashore said:

"Since I have heard that Judge Howell, who has given such splendid service on the school board, can be induced to serve again, I am withdrawing my name from the school election ticket.

"I feel that Mr. Howell has served the city and the cause of education admirably and, if he will accept the nomination, he certainly ought to be re-elected.

"It is my sincere hope that no supporter of myself will make any effort, through a mistaken sense of friendship, to induce anybody to vote for me, as I am emphatically and positively withdrawing my name from the ticket."

To Name Judge Howell?

Judge Howell was urged today by many friends of himself and the city's schools, to reconsider and accept the nomination, if the non-partisan committee tenders it to him, and he informed his many communicants that he would do so, in that event.

The committee will meet this afternoon, and will name him.

In the event that a nomination is not made clearly enough to secure new tickets, then the following method or procedure is advised for the voters, who wish to cast their ballots for Judge Howell, as Mrs. Seashore urges.

Either write the judge's name on the now-printed ballot, that does not bear his name, and place a square in front of his name with an "X" in the square; or, if printed tickets are provided, bearing the judge's name, put an "X" in the square that will be printed before his name, and paste the sticker on the ticket—either over Mrs. Seashore's name or otherwise.

To vote for Thomas Farrell or Sam D. Whiting, (each voter has two choices) the elector may place a "C" in the square before either of those two names.

Honor Visitor Honoree at a series of charming parties this week is Mrs. Carl G. Seashore of Omaha, who with her small daughter, Julianne, is a guest at the home of Mr. Seashore's parents, Dean and Mrs. Carl E. Seashore, 815 North Linn street, while also visiting with her brother-in-law and sister, Prof. and Mrs. Rollin M. Perkins, 1040 Woodlawn. Mr. Seashore is expected to join his family here for the weekend.	Prof. and Mrs. Perkins entertained 24 guests at an informal evening bridge party Tuesday in their home complimentary to Mrs. Seashore. Those receiving honors in the progressive game of contract were Dr. and Mrs. Earle S. Smith, Prof. and Mrs. J. N. Pearce, Mrs. Percy Bordwell and Mr. Arthur J. Cox.	Assembling a party of friends for luncheon at 1 o'clock Wednesday for Mrs. Seashore was Mrs. Fred E. Holmes, who was hostess at her home, 903 East Iowa avenue. The group tables were adorned with nosegays of garden flowers.	Mrs. Carl E. Seashore will fete her daughter-in-law at a porch breakfast for about 20 guests Thursday morning, with a musical program following the breakfast hour. The younger Mrs. Seashore is an accomplished vocalist and she is to sing, her accompaniments being played by Mrs. C. L. Robbins at the piano.

Announcement Party

Mrs. Carl E. Seashore entertained at a Swedish "kaffedags" yesterday afternoon at her home, 815 North Linn street. The rooms were decorated in the Swedish colors of blue and yellow, spring flowers, Swedish flags and tapestries carrying out the effect. The hostess as assisted by Miss Ellen Ford, Miss Betty Meyers, Miss Gretchen Otto, Miss Harriet Franzen, Miss Louise and Miss Ellen Lath, dressed in colorful Swedish costumes.

The courtesy was in the nature of an announcement party for the wedding of Miss Marjorie Moore of Washington, D. C., and Mr. Robert Seashore, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Seashore. Miss Moore was graduated from the University of Iowa last spring and is a sister of Mr. Paul Moore, who serves United States Senator Cummins as secretary. Mr. Seashore was graduated from the university in 1923 and received his S. degree in '24. The ceremony will take place at Iowa City.

COURT SURVEY SUCCESS HERE

Mrs. Seashore's Report Shows 1,721 Persons Signed Petitions

World Court campaigning in Iowa City has proved a great success.

Mrs. Carl E. Seashore, rejoicing over the success, to achieve which she labored earnestly, together with her co-workers and their assistants, has tabulated some interesting figures concerning the securing of signatures and the numerical strength thereof. The grand total of names attached to the petitions is 1,721.

The block canvass, ward by ward, resulted as follows:

1st ward—249.
2nd ward—368
3rd ward—170.
4th ward—437
5th ward—369.

Total 1,571.

In addition the Woman's club, added 150 names.

Of the 4,400 registered voters of Iowa City, about 40 per cent expressed an opinion in favor of the World court.

Mrs. Frank A. Stromsten took the petition to Des Moines today to report to the state League of Women Voters.

Mrs R. Seashore Is Nominated for Iowa City School Board

IOWA CITY, Ia., March 3.—(Special)—Iowa City's nonpartisan school committee has nominated a woman for the school board—Mrs Roberta Seashore, wife of Dr. Carl E. Seashore, dean of the graduate college and professor of philosophy and psychology. She will succeed Judge Ralph P. Howell, if she is elected. She will be, unless an independent ticket is filed, as Thomas Farrell, her running mate, is not likely to be beaten by the Democrats. Mrs Seashore is a Republican. If Sam D. Whiting, attorney, runs, he might win, although (or because) he is a Democrat, as is Farrell. William J. Weeber, a banker, was nominated for treasurer, to succeed the late Hon. George W. Koontz, Independent. Glenn Griffith, a treasurer pro tem, may also make the race.

Mrs. C. E. Seashore Named Sweepstakes Prizewinner

Perfect Weather, Hundreds of Vivid Blooms Make Attractive Event Of Flower Exhibit Today;
Musical Program Planned Tonight

Perfect weather, hundreds of vivid blooms of excellent quality, and the united efforts of members of the Iowa City Woman's club and other flower lovers make a most attractive and truly community event of the 13th annual flower show being held today at the American Legion Community building. The show is open from 1 to 9 p.m. At 8:15 o'clock this evening the Iowa City Woman's club chorus will present a program.

Mrs. Carl E. Seashore, 815 North Linn street, was the winner of the sweepstakes oil painting offered by Mrs. Louis Pelzer to the exhibitor receiving the highest number of points on entries in the show. Mrs. L. E. Clark, whose entries scored more points than Mrs. Seashore's has previously won the sweepstakes and was ineligible for the award this year. In the junior division, a second oil painting sweepstakes went to Billy Hubbard, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. T. Hubbard, 624 South Grant street. Judging was done this morning by a committee of seven Cedar Rapids women who rank as gardeners. As ribbon awards were pinned upon the outstanding displays, the judges announced the following winners.

OBITUARY

DIED - At her father's home in Grant township, Boone county, August 20, 1895, Selma Augusta Seashore, aged 25 years, 11 months, 11 days.

She was born in Boone county, Iowa, September 9, 1869. She got her first education in the country schools where she was always at the head of her classes. At the age of 17 she entered Gustavus Adolphus College, attending three terms. Her time since she left school has been employed in teaching Swedish and English schools.

She was a prominent member of the Lutheran church where she took great interest in the work of Sunday School and Young People's Society. Her heart ached with longing to enlighten and elevate the minds of the young.

She was loved by all with whom she came in contact for her kindly disposition to do good and help everybody. She has always been ambitious to attain good results. She will be held in loving remembrance by her pupils and friends, and the impressions that she has made will certainly remain with many. Her life was short but earnest, and when her mission was ended she was ready and willing to go to the better land when she saw Jesus coming to meet her. Her prayers on her sick bed for herself, parents, brothers, sister and the church were most fervent and never to be forgotten. Although unconscious during the last days her death was peaceful.

The funeral took place from the Dayton Lutheran church, Revs. Stark and Christenson preaching the sermons. A very large number of friends and acquaintances were in attendance to pay their last respects to the dead and to express their sympathy for the bereaved family.

She leaves to mourn her parents, three brothers, one sister and hosts of dear friends.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE

We, as a Lutheran Young People's Society, do adopt the following resolutions.

Resolved: That although God, in his wisdom, has called from our midst our beloved friend and sister, Miss Selma Augusta Seashore, to the heavenly realms, from all earthly sorrows and cares in the best years of her womanhood, we, as a Lutheran Y.P.S., of which the deceased was a member, do hereby extend our most heartfelt sympathy to the sorrowing family in this, their great bereavement.

Resolved: That these resolutions be given to the family and a copy thereof be printed in the Dayton Review, Augustana and Svithiod Committee.

IN MEMORIAM.

MISS SELMA SEASHORE

Died August 20, 1895

/by Selma Callerstrom.

1

Gone from us all!
Passed out of sight and hearing,
Slipped peacefully away
No more to come again,
No more as was her wont,
Blithe, genial and cheering,
To be now here, now there,
In hannts of fellow men.

2

Gone from us all!
From friends distressed and weeping,
From dear ones who until
Death beckoned her away,
Because of strongest love,
Held her in tenderest keeping,
And now must miss her more than faltering tongues can say.

3

Gone from the earth!
Earth's joys so sweet but fleeting,
Its sorrows manifold,
Each bitter in its kind,
No more shall thrill the heart
That now has ceased its beating.
Nor vex with restless thoughts
Her deathless soul and mind.

4

Gone from the earth!
Faith banished every feeling
Of awe and led the way
To heavenly lands sublime.
Her spirit gently crossed
The mystic river stealing
So solemnly along
The peopled shore of time.

5

Gone to her home!
Forever to be residing
Where saints the praise of God
Eternally proclaim.
To be in holy peace
Near Christ, the Lord, abiding,
Who know and loved her best
And called her by her name

6

Gone to her home!
there all things good combining
Make life perfection, since
No evils e'er betide.
Forgot are all the hours
Of struggling and repining,
And there her ransomed soul
At last is satisfied.

7

Gone to our home!
There's one thing more attracting
Our weary, wandering
stops,
And lifted, wistful eyes.
Another sainted friend,
We think, is now
enacting
A watching, waiting part
Beyond the starry skies.

8

Gone to our home!
Dear Lord, keep us from straying
From thee and from the right
Whatever may occur;
Then we may truthfully
And trustingly be saying,
"She comes not back to us,
But we shall go to her."

Gustavus Adolphus College.

Till oss har nått den ledsamma underrättelsen, att miss Selma A. Seashore med döden afgick i sitt föräldrahem i Dayton, Iowa, den 20 augusti och begravdes den 22 i sitt 26:te lefnadsår. Miss Seashore inskrefs vid Gustavus Adolphus hösten 1886 och fortsattesina studier i tre år eller till våren 1889. Sedan dess har hon varit sysselsatt med att hålla dels församlingskola, dels publik skola med stor framgång. Hon var en ung kvinna, som med hela sin själsstyrka egnade sig åt det hon hade för händer. Rikt utrustad både på hufvudets och hjertats vägnar, var hon både Guds och människors älskling. Åt Gud hade hon gifvit sitt hjerta helt. Hon var en af de få af våra forna studerande, som ungefärligen hvartannat år infan sig till våra commencement-högtidligheter. Hon var vårt prisbref inom Iowa-konferensen. Från hennes familj hafva 4 syskon och tvenne kusiner bevistat vår skola. Tre hafva tagit afgångsexamen, flera vistas här än.

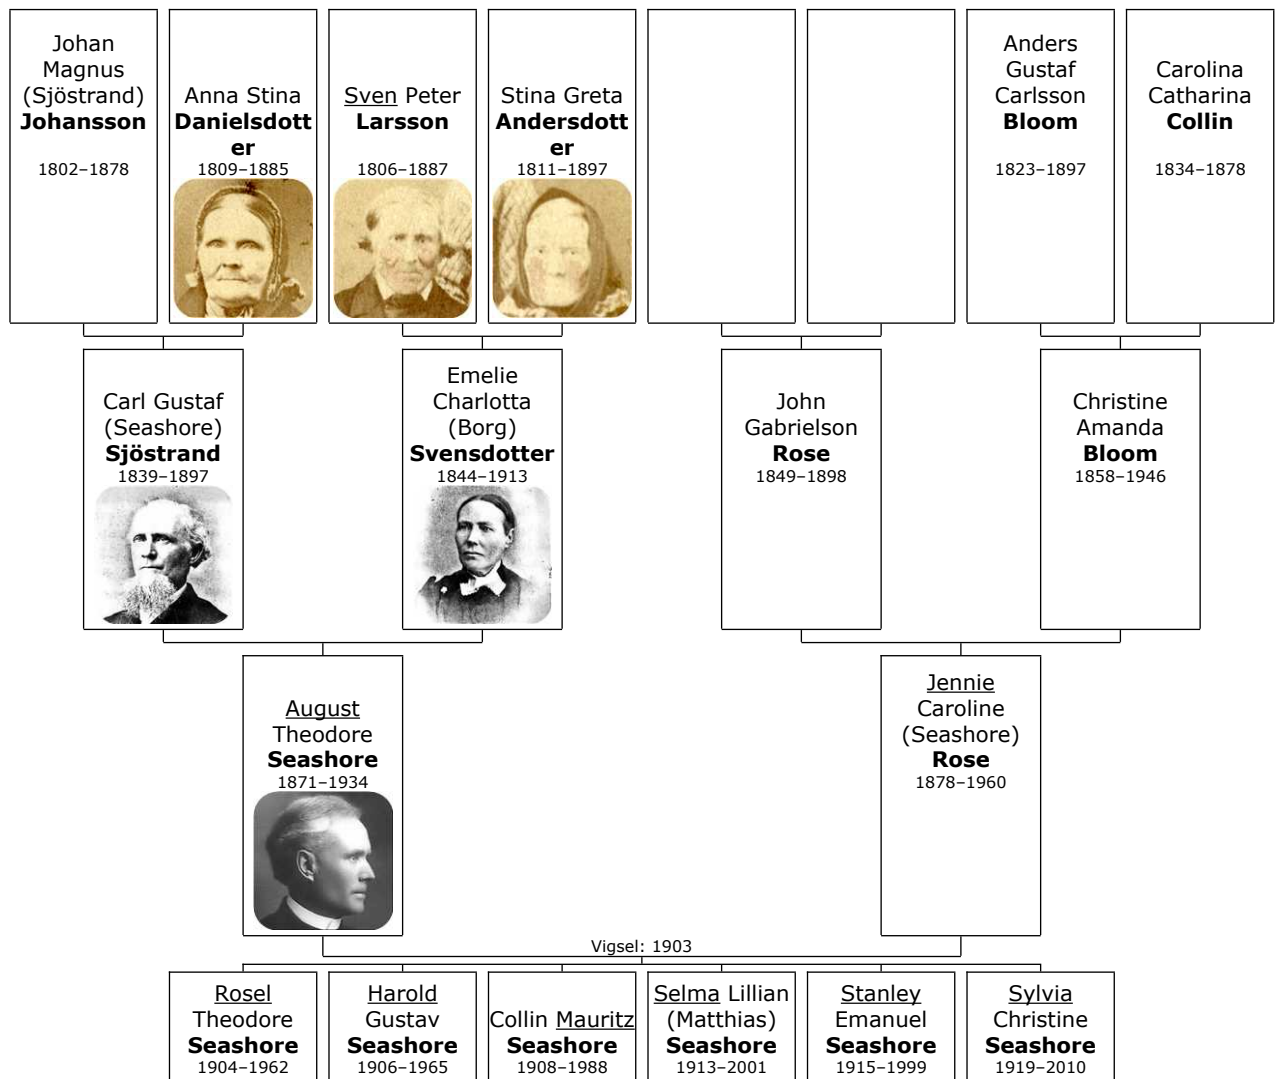

Hon är dock ej död, hon hvilar blott. En kär helsning till familjen Seashore i Dayton, Iowa. Vi känna med er saknad efter Selma. Frid öfver hennes minne!

A. T. Seashore föddes i Dayton, Iowa, 1871, arbetade på farm till 1889, under vintermånaderna besökande skola och även inhämtande undervisning av en syster, som var lärarinna. Han genomgick därefter en affärskurs vid Gustavus Adolphus College och förestod sedan i 2 års tid en järn- och maskinhandel jämte postkontor i en stad i Iowa. 1895 inträdde han åter vid det nämnda läroverket, blev student 1900, studerade i 2 år vid ett teologiskt seminarium i Philadelphia, samtidigt betjänande församlingar, ingick vid Augustana seminarium 1902 och prästvigdes 1903. Under de tre följande åren var han pastor i Swea, Iowa, varefter han kallades av Minnesotakonferensen att upptaga den kort förut påbörjade engelska verksamheten i Minneapolis. Under tiden var han även lärare vid Minnesota College och studerade emellanåt vid statsuniversitetet. 1915 utnämndes han till rektor vid Luther College.

Lutherans Mourn Death of Nebraska College President

Dr. A. T. Seashore, 63, president of Luther college, Wahoo, Neb., who died suddenly yesterday is well-known in Lutheran circles in the quad-cities.

His passing came as a shock to Dr. G. A. Brandelle, president of the Evangelical Lutheran Augustana synod, Dr. G. A. Andreen, president of Augustana college and seminary, and others, who were personally acquainted with him.

Dr. Seashore attended the annual pastors' retreat held at the Augustana seminary Feb. 5 and 6 and appeared in excellent health then. Luther college is operated by the Nebraska conference of the synod. He spent a year and a half in post graduate work at the University of Minnesota and at Augustana college. He then entered the Augustana seminary and received his bachelor of divinity degree in 1903, and was ordained at Paxton, Ill., June 14, 1903.

He was one of the founders of the Association of English Churches in the synod and served on the literature committee of the organization for three years.

In 1924, Augustana college and Gustavus Adolphus conferred the honorary title of doctor of divinity on Dr. Seashore for his outstanding work in education and theology.

Dr. G. A. Andreen, president of Augustana college, plans to attend the funeral Thursday afternoon at Wahoo.

David E. Seashore, M. D. of Duluth, Minnesota, was born February 4, 1875, at Dayton, Iowa, son of Rev. Carl G. and Emily (Borg) Seashore. Rev. Carl G. Seashore and his wife were natives of Smaland, Sweden. They came to America in 1869, and settled at Dayton, Iowa, where they made their home and reared their family of five children:

Carl E., August F., Emma, now the wife of B. F. Anderson Selma, who died in 1903, at the age of twenty-five years, and David E.

The father was a Lutheran minister, a pioneer worker, and an influence for great good in the community. Boxholm had no Swedish Lutheran church at the time of his settlement there. He at once began preaching and gathered together the few Swedish Lutherans in the town and surrounding country. After holding meetings in the schoolhouse for a few years, he solicited funds with which to purchase lumber and other material for the erection of a house of worship, and, being a carpenter, he built the church with his own hands. He continued to serve as pastor of his church up to the time of his death in 1898.

After receiving a public-school education in his native town, David E. Seashore pursued a course of study in Gustavus Adolphus College at St. Peter, Minnesota, and subsequently entered the University of Minnesota, where he completed the medical course and graduated in 1902.

He began the practice of his profession in Otter Tail county, Minnesota, and remained there two years, coming thence, in 1904, to Duluth, where he has established himself in a successful practice. Dr. Seashore has identified himself with numerous fraternal organizations, including the American Medical Association; the State Medical Society of Minnesota, and the St. Louis County Medical Society; also the A. F. & A. M., being a Scottish Rite Mason; the I. O. O. F., the A. O. U. W., the K. O. T. M., the M. B. A, the Swedish Brothers, and the North Star Benevolent Society.

June 10, 1904. Dr. Seashore married Miss Winfred Jones, daughter of Dr. M. S. Jones, of Battle Lake, Minnesota, and they have two children: Helen Emily, born June 10, 1905, and Malcolm D., born January 22, 1909. The doctor and his wife are members of the Swedish Lutheran church
